UNIFORM POLICY

As a College Community we believe that appropriate uniform standards are an important aspect in the life of a student at Catholic Ladies' College. The uniform says something of who we are, what we value and stand for. A uniform establishes a sense of pride, belonging, purpose and identity amongst students.

All students are expected to wear full College uniform at all times and parents are asked to ensure that, when students leave home, they are neatly and correctly attired.

It is an expectation that uniform items are clearly marked with the students name.

Procedure to be followed when a student is unable to wear the correct uniform

If, through circumstances beyond their control, a student is unable to wear the correct uniform, then parents must send a note to the Homeroom Teacher on that day explaining the problem and indicating when it will be rectified. Students will be issued with a yellow Uniform Pass indicating that a note has been received.

Parental support is appreciated in ensuring that uniform matters are resolved promptly.

The following procedures will take place when a student does not meet the expectations of the College's Uniform policy:

- A lunchtime detention will be issued for a uniform infringement.
- A letter will be sent by Year Level Team Leaders to parents of students who are not wearing their uniform according to the CLC uniform regulations. The letter will outline the area of concern and include the date by which the matter should be resolved.
- An after school detention will be issued when a student chooses repeatedly to ignore the uniform expectations.
- Inability to conform with uniform requirements will necessitate a parent/guardian interview with either of the Year Level Team Leader or Deputy Principal Student Wellbeing.
